Overview

- Shaping Attitudes in the workplace is a programme aimed at 16-19 year olds preparing for work placements and apprenticeships.
- This is an interactive programme aimed at improving the employability skills of students, addressing attitudes in Relationships and Behaviour. The section on Relationships looks in depth at Interaction, Challenges and Teamwork; while the Behaviour section focuses on Ethics, Risks, Time-keeping and other related issues.
- For this pilot, two sessions were merged into one to demonstrate the full range of the programme. 11 participants completed the feedback form; and overall comments were positive indicating they found the programme helpful and have a better understanding of how important their attitudes are and what is expected in the workplace.

Staff comments on the part they liked most

“Being challenged to think in terms of how their attitudes/actions will affect them. It showed we care what happens to them and want them to do well”

“The earlier attitude session on the ethics point”

“Teacher/student interaction”

Staff other comments

“I enjoyed the way the presenter challenged points of views without forcing their own views or disregarding the young people's arguments”

“The session could be more physically active/interactive with breakout sessions maybe one or two through the session to keep the students active”

“Really well put together session”

Did you enjoy the session?

Participants were asked what part they enjoyed most?

These are the comments:

“I thoroughly enjoyed all of it as we all took part and I got really involved”

“The breakdown of the actions and consequences”

“Well explained with proper examples to further buttress the core facts”

“Everything”

“Challenges”

Was the session relevant to you?

Were the questions appropriate for you?

Should the session have included any other issues?

Was the presenter's style and tone appropriate for the session?

Was the presenter considerate about your points of view?

How would you rate the presenter's overall delivery?

Participants were asked to give additional comments:

“It was great!”

“Well packed with good delivery”

“The information I learnt was very great. It is very useful in everyday life”

“Should make the presentation short and simple”
